Will,

I think the check you are referring to is from the Dept. of Labor. As I mentioned previously, we resolved the DOL's inquiry prompted by Ms. Nasimova's complaint about not being paid for a few days of her work. I assume the check your client received represented the funds from the resolution, less perhaps a small amount for the DOL.

As to your settlement offer, why don't we speak by telephone to see if it makes sense to continue these discussions. We are nowhere near your demand. Let me know if you have time to speak at 11:30 or noon today.

Do you have a response to my client's settlement offer?

Also, Attentive just sent a $6,000 check to my client. Why are they sending her a check directly without notifying me?

I would request that your client not directly communicate with my client but communicate with me.
